[Newark, NJ]

1918

March 22nd, 1918.

Messrs. Wm. S. Koch & Son,:
61 N.J.R.R. Avenue,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sirs:-

We are to-day sending you, by express, one case of books for binding. We should, of course, like to have them returned as soon as possible. In case there is any delay however, two volumes are desired more urgently than the others, and if you can have these done first it would be an accommodation. These are:-

Babelon's "Traite" in two volumes. (to be bound like the accompanying sample).

Saulcy "Les Monnaies datees des Selencides".

Binding instructions accompany each item. When the work is completed I desire that these be returned. From that, you will note that only a portion of the books are to have at the foot of the binding title the name of this Society, the remainder, the property of our President, do not, of course, have this.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Newark, N. J.

Dear Sirs:-

On May 2nd you responded to my query as to when we might expect the books, which we sent you for binding, by stating that labor conditions were such as to make doing so difficult. While I can not but appreciate that this must be the case, I am sorry to insist that I must have some definite word regarding the binding of these volumes. We asked that certain of them be bound before the entire lot if there was going to be delay, and these volumes we are beginning to need. The books have been in your hands now since April 1st, and if the conditions of which you wrote still obtain, I should like to know it as I shall have to be governed accordingly.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Mr. Sydney P. Noe, Secretary,

New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

Regarding your favor of recent date we are sorry to state that we have been unable to start work on your bindings. Due to conditions beyond our control we cannot give you any definite promise for delivery and if the books you sent us are now required at the library we would advise that you have them returned and use same unbound for the present.

Yours very truly,

Wm. Koch & Sons

July 10th, 1918.

Messrs. William Koch & Son,
61 N.J. R.R. Avenue,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sirs:-

Referring to my recent letter with regard to the books sent you for binding early this year, I regret that I must insist upon something more definite than your last reply. I have been approached by a New York Bookbinder who promises immediate attention to any work we may send him. Unless you can assure me that we may have these books not later than September 15th, I am afraid we shall have to have the binding done elsewhere.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
